The theme of the workshop was “Academic Bank of Credits (ABC-ID)”, one of the most significant and transformative initiatives of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020.

The workshop aimed to create awareness and build capacities among faculty members and academic administrators for the effective implementation of the ABC-ID system across higher education institutions in Maharashtra.

Inauguration Ceremony:

The workshop was inaugurated by Dr. V. G. Atakare, Assistant Dean and Principal, Government Agriculture College, Mul, who addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech highlighting the importance of NEP 2020 and the transformative power of ABC-ID in providing flexibility and academic mobility to students. He emphasized the need for all HEIs to align their systems with NEP directives and leverage the ABC platform for student-centric learning.

Key Resource Person Session:

The Key Resource Person for the workshop was Dr. Prashant Thakare, PM-USHA Coordinator, Gondwana University, Gadchiroli. Dr. Thakare delivered a detailed and enlightening session on the topic “Academic Bank of Credits (ABC-ID): Structure, Functionality and Implementation Strategies”.

- How the ABC system promotes flexibility, modular learning, and student mobility across institutions.

- Technical aspects of the ABC portal and how faculty and institutions can register and participate.
- Challenges and practical steps for effective on-ground implementation.
- Case studies and examples from leading institutions.

The session was interactive, and Dr. Thakare answered several queries raised by the participants. His presentation was highly appreciated for its clarity, depth, and practicality.

Presidential Address:

The workshop was presided over by Dr. A. Chandramouly, Principal of the host institution, who, in his presidential address, reiterated the commitment of the college towards implementing innovative and policy-driven educational reforms. He stated that NEP 2020 is not just a policy document but a national movement to transform education in India.

The program began with a warm welcome and an introductory speech delivered by Mr. Sandeep Deshmukh, who introduced the objectives of the workshop, explained the relevance of the ABC-ID concept under NEP 2020, and welcomed the dignitaries, guests, and participants.
