The Department of English organized a Guest Lecture on the topic “English as an International Language” on 29th September 2025 at Rashtrapita Mahatma Gandhi Arts, Commerce and Science College, Saoli.

The resource person for the lecture was Dr. G. Aglave, Associate Professor, Karmveer Mahavidyalaya, Mul, a distinguished academician and scholar in the field of English.

Dr. G. Aglave delivering his talk on English as an International Language

The program was chaired by Dr. A. Chandramouly, Principal of the College, while Dr. Sandeep Deshmukh, IQAC Coordinator, was also present as a guest of honour. The introductory remarks were delivered by Mr. Prashant Wasade, Head, Department of English, who highlighted the importance of the lecture and introduced the guest speaker.

In his lecture, Dr. Aglave spoke on the global significance of English, tracing its historical development as a language of communication, trade, science, and technology. He explained how English acts as a bridge between diverse cultures and nations and why it is an essential tool in higher education, research, and career opportunities in the 21st century. He also emphasized the need for non-native speakers to learn English without compromising their cultural identity.

The lecture was highly interactive. Students asked questions enthusiastically and participated in discussions, which made the session lively and informative. The lecture proved to be enlightening and motivational, giving students a deeper understanding of the role of English in a globalized world.
